With MajorFacts you can make Major Decisions…

Software

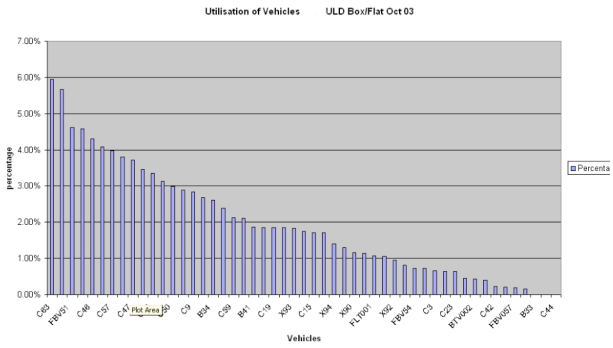
The software is stored remotely on a secure database and we guarantee 99.99% uptime.

Access to the software is through the Internet and does not require any specialist software added to your own computer system.

Software availability is available 24 hours 7 days week 365 days per year

Software enhancements are uploaded automatically.

Special reports can be designed for any particular need.



Each user will have there own login and password. Levels of access can be given so that they suit each manger's responsibility.

Reports are available at the touch of a button with a suite of standard reports available.

All reports are fully exportable into excel (or similar) or to your own operating platform.

The Software incorporates information on the vehicles such as Make, Model, Serial Number and fleet number.

It can be set so that it gives information on servicing intervals and can generate an alert to say when the next service is due.

Thorough Examinations can be programmed so you will be alerted when they are due.

Operator information is also inputted into the software such as names, identification numbers, licenses held etc.

Vehicles can be polled either independently or as a group of vehicles by make model serial number or by fleet numbers and across multiple locations.